Pentecost Has Come

Los Angeles Being Visited by a Revival of Bible Salvation and Pentecost as Recorded in the Book of Acts

The power of God now has this day arrived, as it was in the beginning, and will be in the future. Millions are coming and witnessing the power of God. Millions are coming to Christ. Millions are coming to the Saviour and finding salvation and life through the blood of Jesus Christ. Millions are coming to the altar and finding salvation and life through the blood of Jesus Christ. THE PREVIOUS ASSERTMENT.

Children of that generation who lived at the time of Jesus, and the love of God for Israel, and the Scriptures come alive for us through the lives of those who lived in that generation. The story of Jesus and the apostles is our story, and the love of God for humanity is our love for humanity.

THOUGHTS AS A FINE.

Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and in that capacity, He is the source of all truth and knowledge. His words are the foundation of all that we believe and teach. His teachings and commands are the path to salvation and eternal life.

The miracles of Jesus are a demonstration of His deity and the power of God. They are evidence of the truth of His claims and the reality of His mission. They are a testimony to the love of God for humanity and the revelation of His grace.

Jesus was crucified as a sacrifice for the sins of humanity. His death was a victory over sin and death, and His resurrection was a guarantee of eternal life for all who believe in Him.

THE APOTHEOSIS

FROM A RESIGNATORY TO APATHY. As the 19th century draws to a close, we are left with the melancholy realization that the world we knew will soon be no more. The old certainties of mankind are crumbling away, and with them, the hopes and dreams that sustained us for so long. The world that we once knew is a distant memory, a shadow of its former self. We are left with only the fragments of a bygone era, a world that is gone forever.

The end of the 19th century is marked by a profound sense of loss and disorientation. The world we knew is passing away, and with it, the certainties of our existence. The 20th century, with its promise of progress and enlightenment, has arrived, but it has brought with it its own set of challenges and uncertainties. The world that we knew is no more, and we are left with only the memories of a world that is gone forever.

THE TWO WORLDS OF GOD AND THE SINS OF THE HUMAN SOUL

We present, therefore, a brief overview of the two worlds of God and the sins of the human soul. In the first world, the world of God, we find the realm of the eternal and the transcendent. Here, the power of God is manifest, and the sins of the human soul are forgiven. In the second world, the world of the human soul, we find the realm of the finite and the earthly. Here, the sins of the human soul are judged, and the eternal life of the soul is determined.

THE SPIRIT FOLLOWING THE BLOOD

We end with a reflection on the spirit following the blood. The blood is a symbol of sacrifice, and the spirit that follows it is a symbol of renewal. The two are intertwined, and together they represent the cycle of life and death, the cycle of the seasons, and the cycle of the human soul.

The spirit follows the blood, and the blood follows the spirit. The two are inseparable, and together they represent the cycle of life and death, the cycle of the seasons, and the cycle of the human soul.

THE PROBES STILL GOOD

The hundred and twenty years of the 20th century bear witness to the profound changes that have taken place in the world. The world that we knew is no more, and we are left with only the memories of a world that is gone forever.

EXPERIENCES IN SMELTING GOD FOR

The first time I was ever aware of the Holy Spirit was in my home church. I was a little girl, and I remember lying on my bed and praying, "Lord, show me what it means to have the Holy Spirit." I was never prepared for the answer. The church had a small window in the front, and it was a clear day. I looked up and saw a beam of sunlight coming up through the window. I felt a warm current of air on my face, and I knew that I had received the Holy Spirit. I was filled with joy and peace. From that day on, I knew I was a child of God. I began to pray for others, and I saw the power of the Holy Spirit at work in their lives. I learned to speak in tongues and prophesy. I knew I was not alone, and I was not afraid. I was filled with the love of God and the joy of His Spirit.

GOOD NEWS FROM JERUSALEM

In the year 30 A.D., I was a young man, and I was appointed by the apostles to take the gospel to the Gentiles. I traveled to the lands of Asia Minor, Persia, and India, and I shared the message of salvation with the people. I met many obstacles along the way, but I was never discouraged. I knew the power of the Holy Spirit was with me, and I was determined to spread the good news of Jesus Christ. I was filled with a joy that was beyond words, and I knew that I was doing the will of God. I lived for many years, and I saw the growing church throughout the world. I was filled with the love of God and the joy of His Spirit.
